President's Corner

Hello Everyone!

Summer is almost over, and school has started! Any time is a great time to have your flute serviced, however, as we inch closer and closer to fall with marching band, concert, and competition season approaching, now is a really great time to have your babies serviced.

Speaking of competitions, the Inland Empire Valley Flute Society is excited to announce our first ever Young Artists Competition! It will be on Saturday, 5 November, 2022, from 8AM-4PM, at Spirit of Our Savior Lutheran Church, 5050 Sierra Way, San Bernardino, California, 92404. More information about where to apply, application fees, and local area information will be available soon on our website (www.ievflutesociety.com) and Facebook page, so please check back. Renowned Yamaha Artist Tracy Harris will be judging the competitors for cash prizes!

We have meetings on the 4th Sunday of every month, unless otherwise stated. We meet in person in Redlands, CA, and via Zoom for those of us that cannot attend in person. We try to have guest presenters lined up to give us helpful hints and tricks to better our flute playing, then shift to an executive board meeting. All IEVFS members are invited and encouraged to attend these meetings for fun, fluting, and friendship. I hope to see you all there!

Inland Empire Valley Flute Society Young Artists Competition

Mark your calendars for November 5th! The Inland Empire Valley Flute Society (IEVFS) is sponsoring its first-ever Young Artists Competition for elementary through high school flute players who reside in San Bernardino County or Riverside County. The purpose of the competition is to showcase and recognize outstanding young flutists in the IE. Two competition levels will be offered: Level 1 including students through grade 9, and Level 2 for students in grades 10-12. First, second, and third place prizes of $100, $75, and $50 will be awarded in each level, and all participants will receive a certificate of participation. Our evaluator will be the wonderful Tracy Harris, Yamaha Performing Artist, director of the nationally acclaimed Wyndfall Flute Orchestra, and Artistic Director and Founder of the popular "Tracy Harris Flute Boot Camps."

Online registration and additional information will be available on the IEVFS website later this month!
